

A True Citizen

Peter W. Pearson Returns To Town He Served So Well

Peter William Pearson, 83, died at Preston Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gerald F. Sturdy. Following private services at Preston on Wednesday, the remains were brought to Newmarket for public services this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in Newmarket cemetery. Rev. Henry Cotton conducted the services.

Born on a farm in Whitchurch township, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Pearson he was of Quaker stock, his family having come from Berks county, Pennsylvania. While a boy, his family moved to King township. Mr. Pearson attended Newmarket high school, and loved to recall the days when he used to walk five miles from his home in King to Newmarket each morning.

Upon graduation from the Newmarket high school, he attended the Ottawa Normal school and taught for a short time after graduation. He left teaching while a young man and went west to work on the Mackenzie and Mann railroad.

When he returned to Newmarket, he went into partnership with I. M. Hoag in the coal and lumber business, taking control of the business, now known as the W. H. Eves and Co., when Mr. Hoag retired.

A man noted for his active interest in community affairs, Mr. Pearson served Newmarket as reeve and as mayor. He brought recognition to Newmarket as warden of York county. Later he assumed a place in the larger orbit of the provincial assembly, serving as member for North York for two terms.

Mr. Pearson was active in the campaign to build York County hospital, and his record of achievement in municipal affairs has earned him the title of one of the most valuable citizens of Newmarket. He was foremost in preparing the way for the growth of Newmarket, in the provision of modern facilities such as roads and sewers.

Mr. Pearson was twice married, to Lydia Davis and to Susan Carlotta Millard, daughter of John H. Millard and Ellen Isabella Purdy. Both predeceased him.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Gerald F. Sturdy of Preston and Mrs. C. W. A. Ames of Kirkland Lake, two grandchildren, Peter Sturdy of Rigby College, St. Catharines, and Marilyn Sturdy, of Preston.

INDOOR SOCCER GROUP TO USE LOCAL ARENA

An industrial indoor soccer league has been organized to play at the Newmarket arena with the first games beginning next week, Mickey Smith, recreation director, has announced. Six teams, Specialty, Legion, International Woods, Junior Ball players, Davis Leather, and Newmarket Vets, are entered in the league.

Indoor soccer is new to Newmarket but Mr. Smith and members of the league are confident it will catch on. The schedule will be short, being completed before it is time to start icing in the arena. The league is one of the activities encouraged by the Newmarket Community Recreation Council to make better use of the arena. Other plans for the arena include the formation of a lacrosse league, and its use for an indoor horseshoe pitch.

President of the league is Bob Benville. Other officers are: vice-pres., Gordon B. Ough; secretary, Ernie McCaffrey; executive members, George Haskett, Barney Revill and Harvey Gibney.

There are 11 men on each team, a goalkeeper, five forwards and five substitutes. Three 15-minute periods make up the game. The players will wear running shoes. A smaller ball is used than in regulation soccer but the rule of "hands off" the ball applies with equal force. No charging or bodying an opponent into the boards will be allowed.

It is understood that a minimum charge will be made for spectators with the executive donating the proceeds, after expenses, to the recreational council.

WILL PROVIDE BUS

A bus will take spectators to Aurora for the final junior game with Stouffville Saturday at 3 p.m. If enough wish to go, George Haskett, phone 199, and Mickey Smith, phone 695, will take reservations.

AMATEUR SHOW TO BE ADDED TO W.I. FAIR

The Newmarket branch of the Women's Institute is enlarging its annual fair program on Oct. 3-4 to include a two-night amateur show and send two Newmarket school children on a two-day educational tour of Toronto.

Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales will open the fair Thursday afternoon, and Principal Joseph McCulley of Pickering College will be guest speaker. As usual, the ladies are offering home-baking, needle work and other enticing goods in these times of scarcity. The bazaar will feature baby and agriculture booths, and fresh vegetables, cider and other farm products may be purchased. Mrs. J. E. Cane will be in charge of the music.

The Newmarket Veterans' Association is assisting the ladies with an amateur variety show that should provide two evenings of popular entertainment. This time, the prize money will be divided into three classes; a grand-opens prize, a Newmarket and district prize, and a prize for juveniles.

In connection with this gala affair and for the benefit of the children, the W.I. is sponsoring a two-day tour of Toronto for two children. The tour will include a visit to the Royal Winter Fair, Royal Ontario Museum, Zoological Gardens, The Toronto Daily Star building, a radio broadcast, Sunnyside and as many places of interest as time will permit.

The entire proceeds will go to the W.I. for maintenance of the supervised rest-room and other community work.

Stouffville Ties Series As Protested Game Played

By GEORGE HASKETT

Newmarket juniors went down to defeat before the heavy slugging Stouffville juniors at Stouffville Wednesday afternoon. The Stouffville squad came through with a six-run rally in the seventh to win a 17-13 victory. Up to the seventh it was a see-saw battle with each team at one stage holding down a lead. The victory eyed up the series at one game each.

The third and deciding game is booked for the Aurora town park, Saturday, Sept. 21, at 3 p.m.

Summary: Stouffville, 17 runs, 20 hits, 8 errors; Newmarket, 13 runs, 11 hits, 5 errors.

Batteries: Schell, Rows, Sphlman, L. Doolittle, Dales, Broughton and Gibson.

The Stouffville ball club, at an executive committee meeting of the Ontario Baseball Association on Friday in Hamilton, was able to obtain a reversal of the previous decision made by the O.B.A. sub-committee, and the game of Aug. 31 between Newmarket juniors and Stouffville juniors has been ordered replayed.

The Stouffville club protested an umpire's decision, and the sub-committee of the O.B.A. threw out the protest. Stouffville appealed the decision to the executive committee and this time the appeal was upheld.

The O.B.A. executive said it had made an error in its previous decision and that the base umpire, who said the runner had kicked the ball in fair territory and had advised the plate umpire that the runner was out, was the umpire who had the authority to call this play as the plate umpire said he had not seen the runner kick the ball.

The O.B.A. based its decision on a telegram they had received from a Mr. Spink in St. Louis, who is an authority on baseball rules with the National and American leagues in the United States.

The O.B.A. therefore ruled that the game was to be replayed at 3 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 18, at Stouffville. It sent along neutral umpires from Toronto to handle the game. Newmarket was one game up because of the ruling, and if a third game is necessary to settle the issue it will probably go to Aurora or Markham.

The O.B.A. also advised that the game in the second round of the O.B.A. play-downs between Newmarket and Bowmanville, scheduled for Newmarket on

TAG SEPT. 21

The Loyal True Blue Lodge is having its annual tag day to support the home at Richmond Hill on Saturday, Sept. 21. The public is being asked for its full support in raising funds for the maintenance of the home where 90 children are cared for.

Newmarket children who are willing to tag for the lodge Saturday, will receive their dinner and supper at St. Paul's parish hall. Prizes will be given for the three highest taggers.

5,800 RATION BOOKS HANDED OUT IN TOWN

H. J. Luck, organizer of the ration book distribution in Newmarket last week, reported that a total of over 5,800 ration books were distributed from the Newmarket town hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Over 3,000 books were handed out on Thursday, 1,910 on Friday with the remainder Saturday afternoon. Those who did not exchange their books must go to Aurora to do so. The municipal clerk at Aurora is the ration book representative for this district.

Mr. Luck said that there was no trouble in the distribution of the new books.

Monday night, at a meeting of the Newmarket town council, Reeve Arthur D. Evans, council representative to the ration board, paid tribute to the work done by Mr. Luck and the volunteers who assisted in distributing new ration books last week. "They did a wonderful job," said Reeve Evans.

PICKERING MATRON DIES WEDNESDAY

Miss Florence "Anan" Ancient, for 19 years the matron of Pickering College, passed away quietly on the morning of Sept. 18, after a lingering illness.

Miss Ancient was the youngest daughter of the late Rev. W. J. Ancient and the late Mrs. Ancient of Halifax.

She had been the matron of the school since its re-opening in September, 1927, and had carried on her duties actively until the end of last spring term. She had given herself with complete unselfishness to her duties, and was loved by hundreds of Canadian boys who knew her as "Anan."

Since the introduction of the preparatory department, she had been closely related to the younger boys, but she had continued her other duties.

During the war years she maintained a correspondence with many of the "old boys" in the services and considered this to be her best contribution to the war effort.

The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 21, at 2.30, from St. Paul's church, Newmarket, to the Necropolis in Toronto. The service will be taken by the Rev. Terence Cross-thwait, who is an old friend of the family, of St. Alban the Martyr, Toronto.

FIVE-PIN BOWLERS PREPARE FOR WINTER

The Newmarket five-pin bowling club swung into action Thursday night with the formation of a 12-team league and the election of league officers. Frank Courtney was elected president of the league. Other officers are: vice-pres., Sid Simmons; sec., Ernest Bennett; treas., M. A. Patterson.

The teams will bowl at Smith's alleys Tuesday and Wednesday, with league play beginning at the end of October and continuing until the middle of March.

Teams entered in the league are: Specialty, Bender's, International Woods, Metal Workers, Clover Kickers, Dixon's, Legion No. 1, Legion No. 2, Bowser's, Bankers, Hisey's and Geer and Byers.

Saturday, Sept. 14, would be cancelled until the Newmarket and Stouffville series was completed. The game already played between Newmarket and Bowmanville at Bowmanville, as ordered by the O.B.A., will stand as played if Newmarket eliminates Stouffville.

Decision On Renting Military Drill Hall Left Over A Week

Following some discussion, the Newmarket town council held over for one week a decision on whether to lease the drill hall at the former Newmarket military camp to a construction company as a garage from October until May. The construction company, McHaffie and Birge, which is working on the Toronto-Barrie highway, wants to use the drill hall for maintenance and repair of road building machinery.

The rent suggested by the company is $250 a month with a minimum of $1,000. The company would also agree to leave the building in the same condition as it was when rented.

"If the company agrees to leave it in the same condition as they found it, then I am for it," said Councillor Jos. Vale. "The recreation council will be asking for more help. Let it have the $1,000."

"We saw what the Legion did at the drill hall, making close to $2,000 in one night," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales. "There can be badminton, curling and other sports there this winter. If a construction company uses it during the winter, it will never be used for recreation. You stand to risk cracking the concrete, dirtying the place with oil and grease. By using it for such a purpose, you discourage recreation in town."

"I am in favor of renting the drill hall," said Reeve Arthur D. Evans. "There are many recreation facilities in Newmarket which can be used without considering the drill hall."

"I understand that planks will be laid on the floor so as to protect the concrete," said Councillor Frank Bowser. "The Legion used it one night but the building will be idle in the winter because of the problem of heating."

Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards said that the recreation council had discussed the use of the drill hall but had been troubled by the heating cost. "There are four furnaces in the hall and heating must begin ahead of time in order to have it properly heated," she was told.

Councillor R. C. Morrison: "When the camp was purchased by the town, the drill hall was considered as the recreation centre. If the building is closed to recreation, it will be like closing part of the town. The building

New Water Source Sought To Meet Growing Need

Reeve Arthur D. Evans, chairman of the water committee of the Newmarket town council, received council approval for plans to drill for water at new sites. "We have asked a drilling crew to come as soon as possible," reported Reeve Evans.

Noting that plans must be made to provide water for a population approaching 6,000 in the not too distant future, Reeve Evans said that the Strigley St. and Water St. pumps had to be kept going steadily and that while there was a need for overhauling the pumps, one pump alone could not supply Newmarket with enough water.

Public School Pupils Show Increase Over '45

Newmarket public school enrollment has increased again this year, it was revealed at the first meeting of the Newmarket public school board Friday night in the council chambers. H. A. Jackson, principal of King George public school and supervising principal of Newmarket public schools, reported that the enrollment this year totalled 614. Last year it was 610.

Mr. Jackson said that 35 children in a classroom was the limit that a teacher could properly teach, but that several classrooms in Newmarket had 45 or more pupils.

All members of the Newmarket public school staff were present at the board meeting and were introduced to the members of the school board by Mr. Jackson. L. H. Bovair, chairman of the board, welcomed the new members to the staff.

He disclosed that Mr. Jackson was now acting as supervisory principal with a teacher assistant to help him with his classes so that he might be able to spend more time on all the schools.

He urged teachers to take their problems to the principals in each school who would in turn pass them on to Mr. Jackson to relay to the board if necessary. "In the past, the principals of each of the three schools attended the board meetings but this year, Mr. Jackson, as supervising principal, will speak for all the schools," said Mr. Bovair.

Herman G. Fowler, Mus. Bac., organist at Trinity United church, and retained by the board to teach music in all three schools, told the board he was getting 100 percent co-operation from the teachers. He said he hoped to do some choir work with the children and teach them the reading of music. "I want to treat music as an academic subject," he said.

FINANCE COMMITTEE CONSIDERS PROPOSAL

A resolution from the Newmarket board of health, urging that the Newmarket town council consider the construction of a sewage disposal plant, was read at the Newmarket town council meeting Monday night.

The resolution was handed over to the finance committee for consideration.

"There's no getting away from it," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales. "Sooner or later we are going to have to face this problem. Let's do it now."

The resolution, passed by the board of health last week, was moved by Mayor Dales and seconded by Dr. J. Gordon Cook, chairman of the board of health.

can be heated for dances, if necessary. For sports like badminton and basketball, only the dressing rooms need be heated. I have been told by garagemen that there is an oil-seal which will save the floor from oil stains but I am afraid of the concrete being chipped and cracked."

Mayor Dales: "It would cost $1,000 to clean up the building after it was used for a garage."

Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spillite: "The recreation council is getting into the arena business and there is the officers' mess. If the recreation council can make use of its present facilities this winter it will be ready for using the drill hall next winter. I don't like to see the drill hall go vacant from October to May."

Councillor Bowser: "I checked with a man who helped build that floor and he says it is the hardest and strongest floor in North York."

LEGION TO MEET

The Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion will hold its regular monthly meeting in the officers' mess building at the military camp on Tuesday, Sept. 24, at 8 p.m. All veterans are invited to attend.

Reeve Evans said that the committee was considering sinking wells either on the Soldiers' Settlement property east on Queen St. or north of Main St. on the property owned by the town. He said that drilling would cost $2 a foot.

MEET SEPT. 26

The regular monthly meeting of the Senior Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society of the Christian church will be held in the Sunday-school rooms of the church on Sept. 26.

USE OF DRILL HALL BY INDUSTRY

The Newmarket town council heard Monday night an offer from a construction company to rent the drill hall at the former military camp for storage and repair of road machinery during the winter months. The company offered to pay $250 a month rent with a minimum of $1,000, and to leave the building in the same condition it was when rented. After considerable discussion, the proposal was left to another council meeting in a week's time.

Meeting Tuesday night, the executive of the Newmarket Community Recreation Council passed the following resolution: "That the Newmarket Community Recreation Council, having no definite program for the drill hall after October 16, offers no objection to its being rented during the winter months."

In the discussion preceding the resolution, it was pointed out that the recreation council has more facilities at its disposal than it can at present profitably use. To have accepted the responsibility for making good use of the drill hall without a definite program would have been a mistake. Every advantage except that of size can be duplicated throughout the town in the high school and Pickering College gymnasiums, in the town hall, and in other facilities. The major disadvantage, that of heating the drill hall during the winter, is not a problem in other buildings.

As far as the town council is concerned, the major problem before it is making sure that in renting the building it will not suffer structural damage as a consequence. Renting it to a construction company to house and repair construction machinery risks this. No matter what precautions are taken, we doubt very much whether the building could be returned to the town in the same condition. It is not enough to say that repairs will be made. In these days of shortages, that assurance has lost its meaning.

The drill hall can be a valuable asset to Newmarket as the legion demonstrated last week. It would be a lasting hurt to Newmarket if the building was in any way allowed to deteriorate. Until the citizens of Newmarket have demonstrated that the hall is necessary on a full time basis for recreation, however, it could be better used for other purposes.

CANADA HAS A MESSAGE

At a press conference following his return from the Paris peace talks, the Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King defined Canada's role at the talks as being "as helpful as possible". He is quoted as saying: "It would be the worst thing that could happen to Canada (if she) suddenly jumped into the European arena to say with a loud voice what should be done. . . . Canada's best role was to continue to be as helpful as possible but not to try to talk about a lot of things she doesn't know about."

To be "as helpful as possible" is not in itself an adequate objective for Canada, nor, for that matter, any other nation represented at Paris. Being helpful is expected of every country. Indeed, it would be folly to expect a peace conference to survive without the helpfulness of each nation. To limit Canada's participation in the peace conference to being helpful is to limit a Canadian contribution to international peace to formal attendance only at the conference.

Canada has much to offer the world. Its boundary line on the south is the longest land boundary in the world and the most peaceful one. It is a demonstration that a small country can live in peace with its larger neighbor. In its French Canadian minority there is proof that the rights of a minority can be respected. Its population is from varied sources. It owes allegiance to no one religious creed. Despite these differences, Canadians share an intense loyalty to the principles of freedom and justice for all men by which our country is governed. In Canada, there is a lesson for the nations of the world if there were Canadians to teach it.

Canada is a Johnny come lately to international affairs but its late start by no means lessens the contributions it can make. It is in Canada's own interests to press its recognition of democratic principles at home into the larger orbit of international affairs. Associated with the three major powers, England, United States and Russia, by historical and geographical ties, dependent for prosperity upon its export trade, Canada cannot avoid implication in international decisions. Would it not be best for Canada that it accept its responsibilities as much as possible on terms of Canada's making?

To a troubled world, Canada can offer the application at home of the beliefs it utters abroad. As a nation which asks no part of the spoils of war, its disinterested voice commands all the more respect. It is a small nation in terms of population but in material, and resources, and on the reputation of its fighting forces, Canada is a force to be reckoned with.

Canada has something to offer to the security of the world. Let there be no hesitation in speaking forth strongly and freely, and as loudly as it may be necessary to draw attention to the abiding need for international recognition of freedom and justice without which there can be no international security.

PARENTS SHOULD PARENT SCHOOL BOARD

The public schools have an importance in community life that must never be underestimated. It is in the public school that future citizens have their first experiences in community living. The lessons taught in those years of public school provide the foundation upon which the remainder of their education is built.

It is with this thought in mind that we draw attention to some of the steps taken by the Newmarket public school board in recent weeks, and the problems members of the board are facing. Under the chairmanship of Mr. L. H. Bovair, the board has acted to provide more unity in the administration of the three schools. Mr. H. A. Jackson, principal of King George school, has been named supervisory principal, and of more importance, has been given sorely needed assistance in his teaching so that he may have more time to spend on administration problems of all the schools.

Another notable change has been the retaining of Mr. Herman B. Fowler, Mus. Bac., organist at Trinity United church, to teach music in each of the three schools. Parents will welcome this innovation for the increased musical education it will give their children. Something of the same situation exists in the teaching of art. Miss Pearl Graham will be in charge of the art department as well as assisting Mr. Jackson in his general teaching duties. In art, as well as music, the pupils will receive the benefits of consistency and greater effort.

The Newmarket public school board, like similar bodies in Canada, is grappling with the problem of increased attendance. Mr. Jackson has said that the limit to the number of pupils in a classroom should be 35. Yet many of the rooms have considerably higher enrollments. The result is that the teachers have not the time to spend on individual pupils that is often necessary. Pupils slow in learning certain subjects can not receive the extra coaching they should have.

The board is meeting that problem through the formation of an "opportunity class". Pupils who are falling behind in their class work are shifted to the opportunity class where they receive extra teaching until they have caught up with their work, and then returned to their regular classes. There is no stigma attached to the opportunity class. Some subjects are easier to learn than others. In the opportunity class, the pupils simply receive the extra teaching that is impossible in the present crowded rooms.

The public school board has a heavy responsibility. It can discharge that responsibility only with the interest and co-operation of parents. Education can only be efficient when there is full partnership between parents and school. Where that partnership is lacking, the child is wasting his time attending school. At the present time, the board is acting in a case where a child works to a late hour each night. Consequently he is too tired to learn in the daytime. In permitting their child to keep those late hours, his parents are failing their duty to the child and are not accepting their share of the responsibility of educating him.

Newmarket has a public school system of which its citizens can be proud, and public interest is the surest guarantee that present high standards will be maintained. At the present time, thought must be given to a new public school building. In dealing with this need, the citizens have a duty to perform. A concern with actions of the public school board, and an honest effort to assume his share of educating his children is the obligation of every citizen.

CONTROL LABOR DISPUTES BY LAW

If the federal government had written a labor code, setting forth without equivocation, the responsibilities of labor and management with protection for each party from unfair practices and coercion by the other, Canada would not now be caught in toils of widespread industrial disputes. As self-evident as is this fault, nothing has been done by the government to remedy it.

Labor legislation has been passed by the federal government, but it is not worth the paper on which it is printed. Its provisions are ignored by management and labor unless they can be turned to their advantage. There is no consistency in attempts to enforce labor legislation. In the steel strike, the government has become a third party in lawlessness by participating in negotiations with a union and a management which are both breaking the law.

Existing labor legislation is made up of a hodge-podge of statutes which have reached their climax in the farcical order-in-council naming government controllers for each of three striking steel plants. This order contained penalties for striking steelmen, a provision which was never enforced and which was eventually recalled. It represented the last minute action of the government to avert a strike, an attempt which failed.

The order-in-council has had some value, however, in that it clearly demonstrates the government's concern with the effects of an industrial dispute, and the lack of concern with its causes and the means to remedy those causes. Because of this lack of concern, Canada has become a battleground over which management and labor are fighting it out with little or no regard for the welfare of the country.

This condition must not be allowed to continue. It is suicidal to let it. No one gains in the kind of strike which has tied up the steel industry but everyone loses, the management, the workman and the public. This utter disregard for the rights of the community by management and labor alike has introduced a state of anarchy into industrial relations.

Management-labor relations must be brought under the reign of the law just as the relations of citizen to citizen are. A federal labor code setting forth the rights of both labor and management in their relations to each other, with penalties where those rights are transgressed must be made part of our national law. Where there is a dispute, let it be settled in the law courts like all other disputes between citizens are settled.

Until an equitable labor code is written, until industrial disputes are settled in the courts, Canada must continue to endure industrial turmoil. Surely the federal government must realize that the time for expediency, if that time ever did exist, has long passed.

THE COMMON ROUND A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING

This is the time of year when everything stares you in the face and says, each in its own way, "Here I am ready to be preserved or pickled or canned or whatever," and we look about a bit helplessly and wonder how to tackle some of it.

For instance, how does one preserve a basket of pears without sugar? And for a time it looked as if we'd have to make pickles without salt!

I think that Bible saying "Ye are the salt of the earth," took on a new meaning, and we realized that, if we had to be to people what salt is to almost every kind of food, then we would indeed have to burnish our Christian armor and think what influence means, for what if our "salt has lost its savor?"

September is such a colorful month; the peaches blush redder, the scarlet of the tomatoes more vivid, the green of the cucumbers, the gold of the squash and pumpkin, the silver of onions and yellow of pears, all glow with the joy of harvest; while over all, like gorgeous tapestries, hang the trees—exquisite of design, glorious in color—a work of God such as man can never hope to imitate.

I think September, as the gateway to winter, makes us adventurous, and a spice of adventure, if not carried too far, is something to be thankful for in a world where we seem to have lost our bearings. We can only hope that nations and their leaders will find soon some safe and stabilized platform on which poor humans can find a secure resting place.

At present, we seem like the first messenger Noah sent from the Ark—we find no place to rest. Well, anyway, leaving nations and all vexed questions aside—I've decided to can all the tomatoes I can, and live in hope that maybe I can later save enough sugar to make some chili sauce and like condiments. It's the first year I ever omitted this important household ritual.

I look at my empty jars and they seem to look back at me reproachfully, but then I think of Britain and France and Holland—oh all the countries that are short of so much that we have—and I say to the jars: "One year won't hurt you to rest—we have so much of so many things."

I tried an experiment this morning. I had some honey in the house from two years ago, and I happened to have some prunes. As you may have guessed, I tried combining them, and who knows what will happen?

The cats are getting their winter coats, and their eyes seem to fairly gleam with the joy of life as they climb trees and give acrobatic exhibitions. I suppose they are in training for the winter cold and sports.

Our soldiers got orders to leave for camp at Niagara Tuesday. The York Rangers are under command of Lieut.-Col. Waying of Sharon, who is assisted by Senior Major Lloyd of Newmarket.

On Tuesday afternoon, just after the threshing at ex-Mayor Cane's barn was finished, the men started out of the yard with the machinery. A woman driving a horse and buggy came along just then and the horse took fright at the thrasher. Mr. Harry Trivett went to the lady's assistance and grabbed the horse's head. The animal reared up and threw him from his feet, and as he came down the horse tramped on him with all its weight, sinking the caulk of the shoe into the calf of Harry's leg. The horse was kept under control but Harry had to be driven to the drug store to have the painful wound attended to.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

By GOLDEN GLOW

In less than two weeks, we will be back on standard time again. "Old time", as many of us say, or sun time as they say in England. And won't it be dark early after tea from now on, now that the full moon is past and we are in the dark of the moon?

The next thing will be Halloween. It will be here before we know it, for time just flies! It is such a busy time indoors and out—so many, many things are just asking to be done. The perennials in the flower borders are all asking to be moved and divided. The house plants are waiting to be put back in flower pots and given a place indoors for the winter.

Those big, fat, green, tomato worms are still evading capture. You know they are there but you just can't find them, for they look so like the green foliage of the plant. Then the raking up of fallen leaves—that will take from now till Thanksgiving or later. Thanksgiving is October 14 this year. Oh yes, there's endless work waiting to be done outdoors and, of course, the fall house cleaning inside.

Then, when a lovely autumn day comes, clear and sunny and warm, you want to go on a picnic for the time for such delightful outings draws near its end and we'll soon be shut in for the next six months. What was it an Englishman wrote home about our climate? "Nine months winter and three months summer!" Well! I started to write about D.S.T.—initials are the order of the day so why not call it D.S.T.—and be modern? Daylight saving time seems quite a mouthful. We go back to old time on September 29. I wonder how many will forget to put the clock back and will get to church an hour ahead of time? Somebody always does!

Speaking of church recalls to my mind how, last Sunday, my thoughts flew to D.S.T. No, it wasn't Joshua this time, when he commanded the sun to stand still at the battle of Jericho—no—it was Isaiah 38. It wasn't that my mind was wandering from the service—I'd not say it was that exactly—just applying what I heard. It was verses seven and eight. What do you make of it? "And this shall be a sign unto thee from the Lord, that the Lord will do this thing that he hath spoken. Behold I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down."

Those chilly nights we had during the full moon last week make one recall that the season is approaching when northern lights come out to beautify the dark nights. Early fall is the time. By the way, why do we say "the fall" instead of autumn, for autumn is such a splendid word. Fall has come to be in general use, the fall of the year we say—no doubt from the falling of the leaves.

Did you see the wonderful rainbow about 7:30 last Tuesday evening? And two weeks ago Sunday there was another. The one last Tuesday was gorgeous—such perfect arches—was it a double one. And oddly enough they seemed to be reversed. The colors I mean. They lasted such a long time, too, and kept their vivid coloring to the last. It surely must be a good omen.

Boy Barber's Career Clipped by Mother

Donny, age five, was pretending to be a barber. Donna, his three-year-old sister, was the customer. Donna had long curls with the top ones tied back from her brow with a hair-ribbon. Donna was proud of her long curls so she objected to having a complete haircut. Donny compromised by cutting just "a few bangs" with his little blunt scissors.

When mother discovered the chopped ends lying on Donna's forehead, she was anything but pleased. However, instead of attacking Donny for ruining Donna's hair, she managed to restrain herself. Mother pretended not to notice the bangs. What was cut couldn't be uncut. Mother made a point of having Donny present when she removed Donna's hair ribbon. When Donna's long top curls fell to the floor—poor Donny! He didn't know he had cut any curls.

That experience taught Donny to refrain from using scissors on hair. Witnessing the surprise results was much more effective than any amount of scolding or spanking would have been.

Children aren't usually intentionally bad. They frequently get into difficulties because their ideas are so often in advance of their experiences. They don't know what the results will be of things they do for the first time.

When a child's behavior isn't acceptable, he should be made aware of just that in such a way that he gains from the experience and does not repeat the performance. Any form of discipline should be thought of as a consequence and suited to the action in question.

Children are in the process of learning and we must expect them to make mistakes of judgment. Our privilege, as parents, is to help our children profit by their mistakes. We can thoughtfully arrange suitable consequences to their actions. This method of discipline teaches through learning. It is definitely more impressive and effective than irrational punishments which promote fear and thwart learning.

DIVINE CURRENTS OF LIFE

By J. JAY WATSON

The word divine signifies belonging to God, and "current" is defined as "flow" or "stream"; so divine currents of life may be thought of as the flow or stream of events possessing spiritual content, that time can discover as we travel life's highway.

We know that there are always currents of air about us, yet much of the time they are invisible. For example, we may see a blossom gone to seed being wafted in the air. Thus tiny objects carried in the air may tell us of air currents otherwise invisible.

Examples of divinity in life's course, like the currents in the air, are also all about us—seeing and construing them is one of the infinite God-given joys and privileges bestowed upon man.

That divinity speaks to man. The testimony of the Psalmist tells us: "Day unto day uttereth speech, And night unto night showeth knowledge." This is as applicable to our current today's as the day the thought was given to the world.

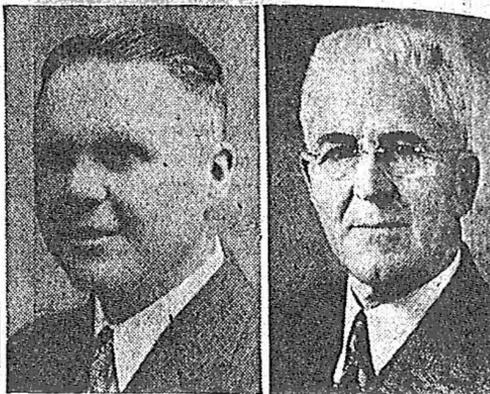

When in the mood, on looking from the window of our home, and seeing people pass by on the street, I find myself filled with admiration for man's ability as a biped, in maintaining his equilibrium as he glides erectly on his way. This evidence of the lusty vigor of life rises in the mind as a transcending tower in contrast with a wall chart of a human skeleton I sometimes see in a chiropractor's office. The thought of the chart conjointly with the man walking down the street furnishes a striking antithesis of what the breath of life does for man.

Nature iterates examples of "divine currents." I have noticed the graining in wood in its beautiful and varied patterns. In this I have been reminded of the registration of growth in life. It seems to point to evidence of a divine current in life, for as we see the patterns in the graining of wood, perhaps we can visualize that all human life is weaving patterns. What man's pattern will be, individually, is not given him to read, but the striving can be none the less sincere, as he works in faith toward the goal of being a humble workman in God's vineyard.

Might-have-been eggs, hens that succumbed to epidemics which could have been checked in the early stages, soon can turn possible profit into definite loss. So, if you have the poultry business in mind, or are having difficulties with it, we suggest that you consult your agricultural college or experimental farm. Their impartial, experienced, practical, up-to-date advice is yours for the asking, a service that may save you considerable money. SAVE TIME... SAVE FUEL... SAVE FOOD!

These Devices Save Farm Labour

Among the farm labour saving devices assembled or invented by the Engineering Section, Field Husbandry Division, Dominion Experimental Farms Service, are many items of auxiliary utility, quite apart from the plans and specifications for heavier farm machinery. For example, full information with detailed plans and specifications may be obtained for making necessary articles for poultry, such as, a range water unit, self-waterer, feed trough, water fount, mash feeder, feed mixer, range shelter, and a roost and pit.

For sheep there are single and double feeders and for hogs there are a hog breeding crate, loading chute, feeding troughs for all sizes of pigs, self-feeder, pig creep, weighing crate, green feed rack, alfalfa feed rack, hog feeding platform, and farrowing pen. Among miscellaneous articles are a harrow dumping device, a breeding stall and bull pen for cattle, feed alley cart, home made anvil, wagon jack, fly trap, hog holder, seed treater, potato cutter, potato sorter, handy farmyard cart, and a low slung wagon. As in the case with heavier farm trucks, tractors, and other machinery full information with plans and specifications may be obtained by writing to, or visiting if convenient, the Engineering Section, Field Husbandry Division, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

Orchids to Schomberg softballers! The Schomberg lads with their backs to the walls invaded Eden Mills on Friday, and manager Gladstone Lloyd was hot on the wire on Saturday morning to jocularly report his proteges had come through with a fine 5-4 win over the Onondago team in a ten-inning battle that kept the fans on their toes throughout. The win put the boys from "The Berg" into the rural finals, with the fast travelling Princeton team from Oxford county as the opposition. The series is now under way and will finish the end of the week. The Schomberg folks are keeping their fingers crossed.

Bill Breedon bashed out a homer to aid the cause last Friday, which saw the Onondago team come from behind in the ninth and tie the count. Art Walker, the former King City softball, dealt the winning blow, which sent Shorty Graham scampering across with the winning tally. It was a garrison finish and a bit too close for comfort. Pitcher Ken Ellison allowed but eight hits and fanned ten to spark the win. The Princeton team were spectators at the game at Onondago, and are reputed to be pretty tough opposition.

Around 100 Schomberg fans followed the team to Eden Mills, and returned hoarse but happy. If the boys come through the villagers are all ready to declare a "hot time in the old town." Keep punching gang!

Bill Bowen, ace hurler of the North York district, along with Bill Chinnery, left last week for British Columbia where he will try his hand at lumbering, and perchance he may not return to these parts in time for next season's softball. Bill's departure resulted in Langstaff defaulting the rest of their games, caused by postponement, which sent Thornhill and Aurora automatically into the league semifinals.

It was a sorry picture to see an attempt made to send the first game into nine innings, and manager Herb Holman of the Aurora team was a bit riled at the ruling. There is nothing in the league minutes to indicate more than seven innings are required and, unless afternoon games are played, it is useless to attempt nine innings of play. The season is too late now to change things. There seems to be a bit too much left to chance in the present league set-up. However, it is the first year of competition and by bitter experience, officials and players must learn to put everything down in black and white at the beginning of the season, and hew close to the line from there in.

Nuggles Shore, who in pre-war years was the ace hurler of Aurora softballers, enters his final year in math and physics at the University of Toronto this fall. Shore, who took work extraordinarily while teaching public school, has his B.A. degree, and last year on his return from the R.C.A.F. took a course at Ajax. He played a bit of house-league softball at Ajax but otherwise has been inactive. Nuggles may try his hand at intercollegiate hockey this winter.

Jack Elder, another Woodbridge boy, who used to play softball with Aurora, has completely recovered from a broken ankle and big John is a valuable cog in the Woodbridge lacrosse team, currently in action against Maple in the finals of the North York league.

Scotty Mair, hard hitting third sacker and top infielder of the North Yonge circuit, will be lost to Coach "Ceeegars" McDonald and the Newmarket Vets for the final round of the league. Hughie leaves on the weekend for Kingston to report to Coach Gus Marker and the Tulsa Oilers. Mair, while reporting to Tulsa, may not stay with the Oilers if the Toronto Leafs decide otherwise. Owner Sam Avey of Tulsa is in these parts and he is pretty sweet on the Newmarket boy, and doesn't want to lose him, either to Pittsburgh or the Leafs.

Toronto Leafs junior school opened on Monday at St. Catharines and looking over the candidates, there's not very many that Mair couldn't compete with on even terms or better. The Leafs will open their main camp next Monday. Chief among the present school are Armand Lemieux, a left winger who was a teammate at Providence last winter of Joint McComb; Pete Langelle, returning from the services; amateurs Tod Sloan, Eddie Cutts and Harry Taylor; and Ray Powell from Fort Worth. We saw Powell in action at Barrie last winter and he looked good, but Mair had a much better scoring record than Powell in the U.S. Hockey League. The scoring points were: Mair, 67; Powell, 48; although Powell, it must be pointed out, spent some time in another league. McComb in seven less games outscored Lemieux, 45 points to 37. There will be a big battle for spots on every team this winter, and a surprisingly large number of new faces will doubtless be seen.

Hockey hits the rugby season smack-bang in the middle this year, and should about coincide with the end of the baseball season, in fact. As long as the public will pay, it'll get worse. Personally we like to wait until December to see the puckchasers go.

Hollywood Wolves are the latest team to be taken under the wing of the Toronto team, with Bob Gracie, ex-Leaf and brother-in-law of Bill Thoms, as coach and general factotum.

Ron Roberts, former Milton junior who used to play in the local junior group, left last week to join the boys in Scotland for the winter.

Sault Ste. Marie has let the contract for their new artificial ice plant at a figure of $232,333. It's part of a giant $550,000 recreation centre. Those fellows up north aren't picayune in any sense of the word, and don't play for goobers.

Bring out those dancing shoes, for tomorrow no less a person than young Mr. Bob Gimby is going to be at Richmond Hill arena to turn loose the jive on behalf of the Hill Youth Council. The Hill teen-agers and young vets have been doing a swell job. They started the girls' softball club this year, helped tennis and intend to do a winter sports program too, with their own special outdoor rink.

We've managed to keep hep to the boogie-beat boys even tho' we don't try to rumba or "Charleston" any more, and this trumpeter, Gimby, is really tops. Besides, which a couple of old-timers, namely Drummerman Sonny Hart, and Rudy Hanson, vocalist, are with the Gimby band, and they still look young. It should pack the place.

Incidentally, an asphalt floor for the Richmond Hill rink is being considered to make it streamlined all year round, with a figure of $3,070 being quoted. No decision as yet by the village councillors.

Lorne Smith, ex-Port Credit and Richmond Hill junior hockeyist and quite a footballer, is expected to catch a place on the backfield at Queen's University this fall. He was ticketed for both Balmly Beach and Ottawa. Don't be surprised if he turns up with an O.H.A. scholarship.

Frank Selke, now headman at Montreal Forum, severs all connection with North York, where for some years he has had some mighty fine horseflesh at Rolling Ridge farm near King. The Selke sale is late this month. Principal Jim Stewart of Richmond Hill high school, is the man who apparently holds the key to whether or not there will be a revival of the North York interscholastic track and field meet, and the fight for the Eckhardt Cup. Mr. Stewart is president of the secondary school's athletic council and as such must take the lead in getting things started. Aurora high is ready and willing to go and we suspect the other schools are too, and Mr. Stewart should have a decision soon. Second week in October seems to be about the right date, and there's not too much time, but arrangements can still be made. The kids are all keen for it and you'd be surprised just how many adults are looking forward to what used to be one of the big sports events of the season in pre-war years. Let's get back to normal, Mr. Stewart!

Soccer will be one sport in which the schools will compete. Richmond Hill, Aurora, Newmarket, Markham, Bradford and possibly St. Andrew's College should all fall in line. At least three are definite starters, and the schedule can be played right through until late November.

Remember when girls' basketball was included in the fall schedule? The two teams and their supporters used to journey by Metropolitan, wearing the school colors and crowded in like sardines. The cage courts were outside then, and some swell games were played. Long about three-quarter time the boys would depart to start the soccer, and you could always tell who had won the basketball as the shrill young voices broke out from afar with the school yell. The present crop of bobby-soxers and their mates have a pretty fair time, but they've missed something too. At least that's the way it seems as we peek back into the past.

George Haskett and his ball hawks were astounded when the edict of the O.B.A. was announced cancelling the game against Bowmanville, and upholding the protest filed by Stouffville juniors over the final game of that series. We suspected, in fact hinted, that the Stouffville protest looked good, but when the O.B.A. allowed the Bowmanville series to start, like everyone else we supposed it was all over. How the O.B.A. can justify allowing the series to start is more than we can guess. At any rate the Newmarket boys were scheduled to meet Stouffville yesterday and if they didn't beat the bejabbers out of the Stouffville team we'll be greatly surprised, for the kids were fighting mad. If the game was lost, however, it means a third game, and further delay at a time when interest in baseball is fast folding up. Newmarket lost a mighty big gate, too, for there were many fans intending to come and see Bowmanville in action. Next question is this: If Stouffville takes the series, they will start against Bowmanville with a clear sheet. Why not Newmarket? Does that first game count, Mr. Snyder? Haskett and his boys won't be surprised at any ruling from here in, but they're undaunted.

Hastings, not Mount Pleasant, turned out to be the draw for Thornhill in the O.S.A. C play-downs and down east on Saturday, George Kelson's boys were nosed out 4-3 in the first game with Teddy Bennett twirling a fine game. The return match will be played at Thornhill on Saturday and a bumper crowd is expected.

New Toronto Legion, conquerors of Newmarket Vets, ousted Orillia White Grills, the 1945 B champions, from the play-off fight in two straight and the Legionnaires now go into the last four for the crown. Sault Ste. Marie is the defending champion. Incidentally, Joe Narrowsky, who does the hurling for the New Toronto team, pitched overseas with only fair success.

Bill Norton, Woodbridge, will perform with Inglewood against Huntsville in the intermediate lacrosse semi-finals. Bill, according to all reports, has been playing with Inglewood most of the year and, in fact, played against the North York intermediate entry in the first game of the play-offs. Combines protested Norton on the grounds he had signed with two teams, whereas the original North York ruling called for no players outside the local district.

Bill Cox also played one game at least with the permission of President Rowntree with Cheltenham in the Peel County league. Whether or not Bill played more is a matter for conjecture. The protest was submitted to the O.L.A. in place of being decided by the local executive and according to what we hear, the O.L.A. waived out the protest. There can be no arguing that both boys played solidly all year with Woodbridge and the offence should have been pointed out earlier in the year rather than at the play-off stage. Once again we must urge local leagues to set things down clearly so there can be no room for arguments later.

At this stage we can't see Maple stopping Woodbridge but stranger things have happened. Maple Young Men's club, which sponsored the lacrosse and sports bowl at Maple and are pointing to a big outdoor hockey and skating season, raised a total of $1,019.75 at their recent jamboree.

Davis Edwards, the ace basketballer and captain of this year's championship senior team at Newmarket-high, heads for Toronto Varsity next week where he will follow his dad's footsteps by entering the faculty of medicine. Francis King, another Newmarket cager, expects to be accepted in a science course. Principal Lockhart will have three rugby teams in action at Newmarket this season and hopes to find competition for them all

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

LIQUOR CHARGES FEATURED IN COURT

Sam Kerr, Aurora, and Thomas Trent were jointly charged in Magistrate J. E. Pritchard's court last week with having liquor in an illegal place. Constable William Langman laid the charge, testifying that he had seen the two on Wellington St., Aurora, drinking from a bottle. They were in a slightly intoxicated condition, according to the officer, but were able to walk to the police station. Neither would assume responsibility for having the liquor, he said. They were fined $10 and costs each and the liquor was confiscated.

Kerr also pleaded guilty to having the liquor illegally, but would not say where he had gotten it. He was fined $100 and costs or three months.

A. M. McNeill, Lloydtown, charged with illegal possession of liquor by County Constable R. Watt, heard the charge dismissed by Magistrate Pritchard, who said that the doctrine of reasonable doubt still prevailed in his court, and that in his opinion the crown had failed to prove absolutely that the accused man had the liquor illegally. Defence Counsel Roebuck had introduced Mrs. Evelyn Kerr, manageress of Parkdale Wines, to testify in McNeill's behalf.

Cecil Abbott was charged with having given David Hillis a worthless cheque for $132. He made restitution and was fined $10 and costs.

Harry Brown, appearing for Mrs. Jessie Brown, pleaded guilty to driving a commercial vehicle with a 2,500-pound overload, and was fined $15 and costs or ten days.

He also pleaded guilty to having liquor in an illegal place. He was fined $15 and costs, or one month; and the liquor was confiscated. Chief Constable James Leader and Constable E. Wrightman laid the complaints. Thomas Dawson, given the alternative of a $10 fine or one month on a charge of having liquor at Wilcox Lake, accepted the jail term. The liquor was confiscated.

Patrick D. Bowen, Toronto, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 or ten days, when charged by Constable B. Burbidge with driving 40 m.p.h. at Elmhurst Beach. John Hunter, Toronto, pleaded not guilty to a charge of driving 41 m.p.h. through Sharon, and was granted a suspended sentence.

W. J. Roberts was fined $5 and costs for driving 40 m.p.h. at Elmhurst Beach. Constable B. Burbidge laid the charge. Roberts claimed that when he passed through, all the signs were being painted, and he thought the speed limit had been raised. Gordon Brown was fined $10 for violating the games and fisheries act by carrying and using a firearm. Ernest Prosser laid the charge.

BANK CREDIT BRIDGES THE FINANCIAL GAP

Every day, business firms make use of bank loans to keep men working, machines running, goods flowing. This bank credit may be used to meet continuing expenses while goods are being processed; to build up stocks of raw materials; to purchase component parts. As finished goods reach the market and payment is received, the loan is repaid.

Interprising farmers, fishermen, merchants—all make similar use of bank credit to meet their short-term financial needs. Thus your bank helps Canadians to obtain steady operations—to take advantage of market opportunities both at home and abroad—to grow. And this, in turn means more work, more goods, a higher standard of living for you and for every Canadian.

from St. Andrew's, Pickering and Barrie. Last year, the purple and gold mixed team won five out of six. With a coach experienced in football (Mr. Gregoire), the kids at Aurora high are tossing the rugby ball around and doing a bit of light scrimmaging. There'll be no games however, because of lack of equipment. Eventually the high school lads in these parts will play football. It's quite a handicap to those who go to university to know nothing about the game and this is just about the only sport the district towns haven't tried a hand at. At one time Aurora high used to play rugby but that was in pre-war days with Pickering as opposition. Clair Exelby, ye olde Newmarket camp softballer, sent his Arlingtons in the finals of the Toronto B series as they ousted Amalgamateds of the Dentonia circuit. Exelby will meet up with either Kodaks or Cec Brown and his Firefighters who put out Tommy Jamieson and Bowers in the semi-finals round just to add spice to the set-to. Charlie Proctor, former Hill catcher, is back teaching school again after lolling away all summer at Rice Lake. Charlie fired a 90 on Sunday at St. Andrew's Golf course to finish second low gross on the North York community contest. Bert Snow, George Stark and Ernie Hughes of the Lansing softball club were all well up in the contest. Quite a gathering at the 18th hole, too. Hamilton Westdaks, which took Aurora, have added the scalps of Waterloo to their long list of triumphs. They still have to get past Bob Abate's Toronto Lizzies.

WHITCHURCH

Rings, Locketts For Vets Planned By Township

Claims for sheep damage passed for payment at the regular meeting of Whitchurch township council Saturday amounted to $130. J. A. Clark received $70 for five sheep killed and three injured; Hugh Canning, one sheep killed, $8; Geo. Sproxtion, two sheep killed, $28; and Warren Rae, two sheep killed, $24. A communication was received from Geo. Davies of Cedar Beach in which he asked the council's permission to lower the sharp grade on the ninth concession opposite his parking lot. Mr. Davies is doing some extensive work with a bulldozer in his parking lots, and cutting down the hill, in addition to eliminating a driving hazard, will enable him to grade his lot off to a gradual slope. After brief discussion, council agreed that Mr. Davies should go ahead with the work at his own expense, and under the supervision of the local road foreman with a fifty-fifty cost for the gravel. In reply to request from W. R. Butt, owner of a lot in Newmarket Gardens Annex, regarding a proper roadway to his premises, the council stated that they did not anticipate doing any road work in this area at the present time. The town of Aurora was granted permission to move a building, which they have purchased at the Newmarket military camp, over the second concession to a new site. Two accounts, each for $40, were received from the Aurora Fire Brigade for two cottage fires at Wilcox Lake. It was pointed out that this brigade had received over $600 for fighting fires in Whitchurch so far this year. The annual grant of $25 was agreed upon for the North York Plowmen's Association, and passed for payment. One hundred and thirty-two presentations will shortly be made to ex-service personnel in the township, 109 men will receive engraved rings, a gift from the municipality costing over $2,000, while 23 girls will receive locketts costing $221. Road accounts passed for payment amounted to $2,355.93, a considerable amount of which was for labor repairing washouts following the heavy storm of a month ago. It was stated that in one instance, a three-foot culvert was completely uprooted from the roadway, leaving a hole ten feet deep and 12 feet wide. Douglas Harrison and Lloyd Hockley received payment of $185 and $265 respectively for collecting garbage at Musselman's and Wilcox Lakes. Miscellaneous accounts passed for payment totalled $448.98.

WHITCHURCH

Henry Widdifield To Retire As Road Superintendent

Henry Widdifield, road superintendent in the township of Whitchurch, who would complete 21 years of service next January, will relinquish his position immediately due to ill health. Mr. Widdifield is over 75 and has been in very poor health, having been hospitalized for some time recently. The road superintendent, who made his home at Pine Orchard, has been a well-known figure in the municipality for many years, and his presence will be missed around the council board. It is expected that a bylaw will be brought in at the October meeting in preparation for a new appointment. There was considerable discussion at Saturday's council meeting regarding the condition of the roads and particularly some of the ditches. The seventh concession south should be levelled up where the sides have been washed away, it's hardly wide enough to pass," stated Councillor Fred Timbers. "There's been no ditching done this year," the reeve added. "Why can't we operate two shifts on the grader and get some of this work done," said Mr. Timbers. "There certainly should be two shifts operated each year, if it's too late this year," Mr. Logan. After further discussion, it was agreed that the two shifts should be immediately if the ditch could be secured, and John Crawford was authorized to have this system put in operation. HIS NOSE is made of Plastic Wood!

Six INCHES HIGH and carved from wood, Jean-Baptiste began life without a nose when his creator's knife slipped and eliminated that important part of his face. But plastic surgery saved him. His new nose is a product of chemistry. It came out of a tube in the form of C-I-L Plastic Wood, a C-I-L Paint & Varnish Division product for home, hobby and industrial use in healing holes and cracks in wood. C-I-L Plastic Wood comes from "Wood Flour", derived from nature, combined with a chemical bonding agent. The result is a product that "Handles like putty and hardens into wood".

Now Chemistry enables the farmer to put longer life into his fence posts by the use of Chromated Zinc Chloride solution. Green posts are immersed in the solution and the chemical is taken up by the sap stream to permeate the wood and make it resistant to insects and decay.

Some farmers prefer an iodized salt block to the plain variety. The small but vital iodine content is not sufficient of itself to distinguish an iodine salt block from a plain one, so a harmless red pigment is added that makes identification easy.

Music by the Mile! And recorded—believe it or not—on tapes of "Cellophane", 350' long and 1 inch wide with no less than 60 sound tracks. They provide music for hours with no stops for changing records. At present available only for commercial use, this type of recording may eventually find its way into the home.

Corn, Weiner Roast Held For Guest From Scotland

On Monday, Sept. 9, a successful corn and weiner roast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cook. Early in the evening contests, lucky draws and sports were enjoyed by the younger folk. A lengthy program was opened by a rousing sing-song, with Mrs. H. Stone at the piano.

This was followed by a piano solo by little Marilyn Cook. Mrs. A. Baxter sang two solos, the crowd joining with her in the chorus of the second number. A trumpet duet by A. Baxter and son, George, was well received. Beatrice Proctor accompanied by Miss Doris Geer, sang in a pleasing manner, and Murray Cook with his Western Ladies sang some cowboy songs, Murray playing his own accompaniment on the guitar.

At this time Mrs. Cook introduced Mrs. Craig, who had lately flown over from Scotland, for an extended visit in Canada, and A. Elder played the bagpipes in her honor. Mrs. Craig responded by doing a snappy highland fling. Everton Paton, in Scots costume, sang two humorous songs. H. Stone put on a magic act which mystified the audience, especially when he removed his top hat and extricated a very lively rabbit. He also did the egg trick, assisted by little Barbara Burbridge and Bernard Hill.

Mrs. E. Smith sang The Gipsy, and Mrs. Nellie Wood sang To Each His Own, both numbers receiving rounds of applause. George West, organizer of the Pottageville minstrels, was called on to sing a couple of songs, and although this was quite unexpected, he obliged capably. A comedy boxing match was staged by "Joe Lusit" (A. Baxter) and "George Pee Wee" (Andy Baxter). This was done in comic costume, and brought screams of delight from the audience.

Cliff Douglas and his clever dog, Mac, were the last item on the program, and rounded out an enjoyable program, after which refreshments were served by the ladies.

Mrs. J. Atkinson was presented with a prize for being the eldest on the grounds, Thomas Ellison for being the youngest. Mrs. A. Baxter tendered a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Cook for their generous hospitality, the crowd showing their appreciation by singing "For they are jolly good fellows." This concluded the evening.

York Spud Growers See Large Scale Demonstration

Sixty York county potato growers, with 20 from Ontario county, went to Brantford by bus last Wednesday to attend the provincial potato field day where they saw the results of tests of 40 different spray and dust materials, demonstrations of vine killing and exhibits of modern power potato machinery. The party went by way of Hamilton where they visited the famous rock gardens and on the return trip stopped off at the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph where they had supper.

The field day was held on a farm formerly abandoned and now planted to 100 acres of potatoes, where the owner is alternating potatoes with fall rye to plow under. What had looked like a fine stock barn turned out to be a storage for some 20,000 bus of potatoes. J. D. Moore, agricultural representative for Brant and formerly assistant representative in York, was chairman of the committee and acted as master of ceremonies, introducing the various officials of the provincial and federal departments of agriculture to explain the work and results to some five or six hundred visitors. Those who saw the plots and machinery are thoroughly convinced that potato growing has moved up into the category of big business.

Sponsored by the crop improvement association, the trip was arranged by president Frank Marritt of Keswick and secretary W. M. Cockburn of Newmarket, with the assistance of the 500 Bushel Club committee.

Council Approves Use Of Mess Hall By Legion Branch

The Newmarket town council gave its general approval to the proposal of the Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion that the Legion take over the officers' mess and assign the matter to the property committee of council to discuss final details with the Legion. The Legion was granted the use of the mess building for one year as a trial run.

"This matter is of some concern to this council," said Mayor L. W. Dales. "I personally do not believe in presenting messes to veterans. Instead, I like to see considerations as the officers' mess building as some concrete satisfaction of part of our obligations to veterans as a town council."

"It is clear that the Legion feels it can operate the officers' mess to the benefit of the town," said Councillor Joseph Vale. "I suggest that the matter be referred to the property committee with power to act."

"How many nights would the building be open to the community?" asked Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards. "In time, very few," replied Mr. Stiver.

"These are details," said Mayor Dales. "Let us settle on the principle of it. We can be assured that you will open the building to the community as often as possible." "Yes," said Mr. Stiver.

"I would suggest the use of the hut for one year," said Reeve Arthur D. Evans. "The Newmarket Veterans' Association has the use of the building at the corner of Millard Ave. and Main St. I think that in a year there will be changes."

"I think the year's trial is a good suggestion and if, after a year, you wish to carry on, I think we should consider that an outright presentation of the building to the veterans would be in order," said Mayor Dales.

Water Pipe Short For Work On Edward St. Extension

Work has begun on the Edward St. extension by the Hagersville Asphalt Co. A bulldozer is doing the preliminary work, following which will come grading, the establishment of a road bed and the laying of a macadam type road. The work is expected to be completed early in October. The sewer pipe has now arrived and the laying of the sewers will likely get under way next week. So far the piping for the water extension has not been received and there is no news as to when this will be available. The same situation applies to the extension of the town water system to the limits of East Wellington St. Unless it is available soon the work is likely to be postponed until 1947.

Steel is still the problem insofar as commencing the Hart plant on Edward St., although the Aurora Building Co. is expected to secure the needed steel from the U.S.A.

New First Grade Planned In Former Committee Room

As soon as another teacher can be secured and providing parents are satisfied with lighting and heating conditions, another first grade will be established by the Aurora public school board in the present committee room on the ground floor of the old town hall. Permission has been received from the Aurora town council for this purpose.

This year there are 35 pupils in first grade, the maximum number that can be accommodated, Principal J. G. McDonald said. There are at least 17 children who are coming of age, or of school age now who could not be housed when the school term started and the parents of

Triple, Wild Throw Breaks Tie To Even Ball Series

With a last inning triple and a subsequent wild throw home which produced the tie-breaking run, pitcher Teddy Bennett, Thornhill, put his mates on even footing in the North Yonge softball semi-finals as Aurora went down to defeat 5-4 in eight innings at Thornhill on Monday night. At last reports the two teams were still deadlocked as to the site of the rubber match, Aurora wanting to go to Newmarket and Thornhill to Lansing.

Aurora outthit the winners eight to six and the errors were about even. Thornhill bunched its hits in the third for three runs but after that Morley Cook pitched steady ball until Bennett labelled one in the gloom to the outer pastures.

Down 4-2, Aurora tied the score in the sixth, Jimmy Emmons driving home McDonald and Case. Before that, Wilf

Aurora Hits Lustily, Defeats Thornhill 13-5

Aurora softballers, turning in one of their best displays of the season, crashed out with a 13-hit attack, and this, coupled with a series of errors by Thornhill, enabled Herb Holman's boys to take a decisive 13-5 win in the first of the semi-finals of the North Yonge softball circuit. Morley Cook on the Aurora hill-top allowed but seven hits over eight frames, and struck out ten batters. While giving up nine bases on balls and getting himself in several holes, his mates invariably rallied with some fine fielding plays to snuff out the Thornhill chances.

Aurora led 7-3 at the end of six and a half innings of play, and the fans thought the game was over only to have the league secretary order the game to proceed. As nine innings were obviously impossible the ruling irked the fans. Aurora bashed out six more counters in the last of the seventh as Thornhill played lacklustre ball to prolong the contest. The first of the eighth was played in semi-darkness, and the last two Thornhill runs can be discounted.

Aurora took a one-run lead in the first inning, went for three in the second, took one more in each of the third and fourth, two in the sixth, and five in the seventh. Thornhill scored singles in the third, and fifth and seventh, and two in the eighth.

Aurora's best defensive display came in the fifth when, with one out and the bags full, Cook forced in a run after which the locals held the Thornhill team at bay. Harry Boag, filling the place of the ailing Ray White at third, turned in a great performance. Harry had four hits in five tries, and in the third pulled off the fielding gem of the night as he speared a hard line drive. Wilf White was dead in the field and displayed sound judgment on his plays. Yake with three hits, and Emmons with two, also turned in valuable efforts.

Teddy Bennett, while touched for 13 bingles, fanned nine, and walked but two. His ragged support in the early frames put him behind the eight ball from the third on. Hal Echlin had two hits, and Redman also obtained a pair, one a triple.

Dutch Forhan, Newmarket, and Bill Somers, Willowdale, handled the game in fine style. Aurora: Boag, McDonald, White, Yake, Case, Cook, Emmons, Morgan, McCarty. Thornhill: Crean, Echlin, Findlay, Bennett, Scott, Redman, Kelson, Hodgson, Lake.

Combines Lose Protest, Woodbridge Advances

It's Woodbridge and Maple for the finals of the North York lacrosse league, and Aurora fans are hoping some of the games will be transferred to the Aurora area. Combines lost out in the second game of the series last week, 8-4, before the largest crowd of the season, in a grim, hard fought struggle, which saw Lady Luck completely desert the Yonge St. boys. The 'Bines also lost a committee room protest over the series.

Combines protested the fact that Bill Norton had played with Inglewood in the Peel county and O.L.A. as well as Woodbridge, and Bill Cox, the Woodbridge netminder, had performed for Cheltenham in the Peel series, and allegedly was listed as sub-goalie for the Brampton series. President Rowntree ruled the O.L.A. had permitted

The final Combines game saw the teams tied 1-1 at the end of the first period, with Woodbridge leading 3-2 at the half. A penalty to Combines saw Woodbridge rush in two quickies, and with Smith lying helpless on the terrain, the referees allowed a goal to be scored in the empty net. Combines outscored Woodbridge 2-1 in the final period.

Syd Prosser and Dick Walsh of the O.L.A. staff handled the game, which was one of the roughest of the year. Bill Norton and Son Rowntree scored three each for the winners, and along with Bill Cox, Ray Castor and Jack Elder carried the brunt of the winners' play. Gordy Smith, Combines' goalie, twice took the count, and saved a pile of rubber. McKenzie, Jeff Elliott, Cleve Burton and Norm Alexander carried the mail for the losers, who couldn't get their passes clicking.

LETTERHEAD RECALLS DAYS OF DAN MCGREW

An amusing moment of the days when men were men and Dan McGrew was shot every second Sunday is a faded, yellow letterhead of the Sour Dough Hotel, 1333 Icicle Ave., Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, which is owned by Mrs. David D. Neufeld, Esq. St. Newmarket.

Not backward in announcing its quality, as was only fitting in those days, an age when frogs smoked cigars (according to Robert Service), the Sour Dough hotel advertises itself as "the best house north of Mexico. First class in every particular. Rates: one ounce per day."

For the guidance of guests not familiar with the hotel, the management has thoughtfully provided a list of house rules. Every effort was made to maintain high standards. Towels were changed weekly and dogs were not allowed in hotel beds. Spiked boots had to be removed at night. In keeping with the reputation of the age for being rough and tough, the management advises that "the hotel is convenient to all cemeteries. Reserves for hire".

UNION STREET Roll Call Reveals Neighborhood History

The members of Union Street Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, Sept. 5, at the home of Mrs. E. McClure. The roll-call, naming an old land mark of the district, resulted in some interesting facts about the community of earlier days and fitted in well with the topic which was historical research.

Mrs. Lillian Johnston and Mrs. Archie Sedore were chosen as leader and assistant respectively to attend the short course, Salads the Year Round, to be held in Newmarket on September 24.

The ladies also decided to serve lunch at two auction sales—that of Mrs. Ethel McClure on September 26 and that of Douglas Beckett on October 1.

The program, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Harold Bray, was opened with a hearty community sing, following which Mrs. Bray gave a paper entitled, Village Was Named After Prince Albert (now known as Mount Albert). Current events were given by Mrs. Doug Beckett.

Mrs. Thos. Swanson read an article on Blue Willow Ware, outlining the story as illustrated on the famous old English dinnerware so popular in our grandmothers' days. Two readings—Mother Shipton's Prophecies, by Mrs. Archie Sedore, and Neighbors, by Mrs. Bray, were much enjoyed. Mrs. Swanson conducted a quiz, Know Canada, with Mrs. Cupples being the winner.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem, following which dainty salad plates were served.

Last Thursday evening the young people of the community were entertained at a corn and Weiner roast held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sedore by the Women's Institute. A short program was given and, despite the cool weather, everyone enjoyed themselves.

The required resolution giving consent of this township to portions of union school sections five and six being included in the Georgina township school area was passed.

A by-law was passed setting the last Monday of November in each year for the date of holding nomination meetings in the evening and election day on the second Monday in December. A by-law was passed adopting the 1946 assessment roll as the assessment roll for 1947 with any amendments that are required and on this taxes will be levied. Future assessing will be done in the summer. These changes are required by legislation that was passed during last session of legislature.

Forms of requisition for interim payment on the legislative grant on highway expenditure were completed.

Accounts passed were: Walter Merrick, sheep killed and injured by dogs, and flock damage, $180; John Galbraith, bulbs for Zephyr street lights, $3; pay roll No. 9, labor on roads, $63.20; N.

Marjorie Baile, one of three linotypists, sets type for the newspaper. The linotype is a complicated machine, operating something like a typewriter in that it has a keyboard. Considerable skill is required by the operators.

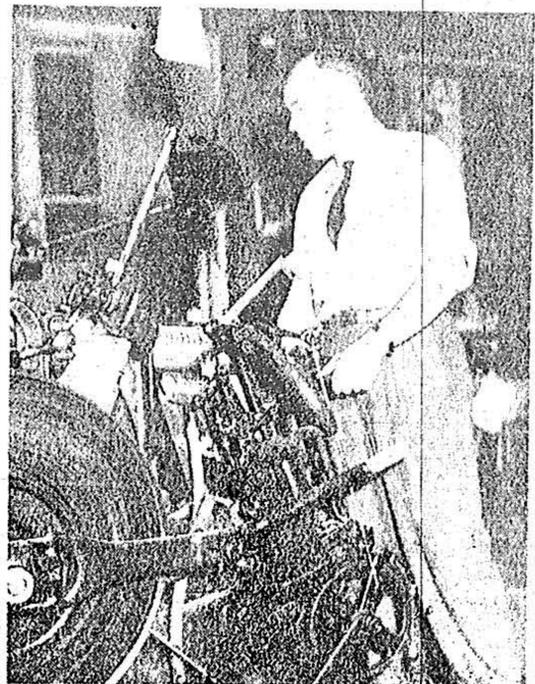

Albert Seitz, pressman, feeds a large sheet of newsprint into the press which prints The Era and Express. The press is a flat-bed press which prints four pages at a time on one large sheet. The press prints 800 sheets an hour.

Harry Hodge places type into the form for printing. On a ten-page paper, work is begun in making up pages on Tuesday. The staff in the composing room also includes Lawrence Racine, Kester Hugo and Delbert Gibney.

As the paper is being printed on Thursday afternoon, everyone helps in the wrapping and mailing. Marjorie Baile operates the machine which stamps the name of subscriber on his paper while Mona Dean assists in wrapping. In the background, Harry Hodge and Kester Hugo operate the folder.

After the paper is printed, the composing room force turns to job work. Here Kester Hugo operates the automatic job printing press. The Era and Express has two job presses and they are kept going steadily between newspapers. Photos by Racine.

Many Skills Contribute To Printing Newspaper

Our subscribers often ask us until Thursday, because we start news on Tuesday we are always pleased when we receive news early in the week and have a chance to distribute it through the paper, instead of trying to put it into the Thursday's four pages.

A word now on how we collect news. Country news comes to us from our correspondents of which The Era and Express has 50. Correspondents are the backbone of any rural weekly newspaper. Through them, we learn of the activities throughout the district and in places not readily accessible. We are proud of the work done by our correspondents and take advantage of this article to congratulate them and draw attention to their work.

Suppose we follow a news item from the time the report comes to the office until it is printed in the newspaper. When the story is written it is sent to the composing room where it is set in type on one of the two linotypes. A proof is drawn from the type and it is read for mistakes. The corrections are made and the type is checked once again for errors and then laid aside until it is time for it to be placed in the press.

If the newspaper is to have ten pages, printing begins on Tuesday afternoon. The Era and Express is printed on a flat-bed press which prints four pages at a time on one side of a large sheet of newsprint. For our ten-page newspaper, pages three and four are made ready on Tuesday afternoon. By Wednesday, the pages have been printed and four pages, two, five, eight and nine, are made ready for the press.

By Thursday noon, we are ready to print the remaining four pages, front, Aurora, classified and back pages. As the final four pages are printed, the large sheets of newsprint with four pages printed on each side, are run through a folder and, at the same time, pages three and four are inserted to give the completed newspaper.

Knowing how the paper is printed helps readers understand why, for example, it is impossible to make corrections on Wednesday in the news which has been printed Tuesday. Though the paper does not reach the public

Alley bowling: The Newmarket alley bowling club re-organized last week and the opening date is set for October 1. This year they elected Frank Courtney for president, Sid Simmons for vice president, Ernie Bennitt for secretary and Pat Patterson for treasurer.

START TRAINING EARLY MOTHERS ARE ADVISED

On Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Etta Wilder, an interesting meeting was held for mothers.
Mrs. Bernard Huntley was guest speaker. She spoke on "the mother's opportunity and her grave responsibility with the care of her little ones."
"We can not start too soon," she said, "to train our children in the right ways of living and to teach them right from wrong. Let them feel that they can come to us with their every little problem and we will find the habit is formed and they will bring their big problems to us later."
She spoke of the importance of mothers being "temperate in all things".
Mrs. Kenneth Boothby sang a beautiful solo and little Carol Boothby sang Jesus Loves Me. Six small children were made Little White Ribboners at this meeting.
A social hour was spent at the close of the meeting which was enjoyed by mothers and children alike.

Former residents of Owen Sound, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, Franklin St., Newmarket, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Williams, Caitness Farm, near Owen Sound. Photo by Duff's Studio, Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams Mark 50th Anniversary

(Owen Sound Sun-Times)

Sunshine and baskets of mixed flowers made a lovely setting at "Caitness" farm home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Williams when they entertained at the tea hour on Saturday in honor of the 50th wedding anniversary of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, former residents of Owen Sound, now of Newmarket.

The lovely wedding cake in a bed of golden tulle caught up with tiny marigolds and carrying its insignia of 50 years encircled in a wreath of golden oak leaves, graced the centre of the table. Slaty ivory tapers in silver holders had their place at the four corners of the cake while candles in low double candelabra gleamed from the buffet.

Mrs. Percy Williams received her guests wearing a white afternoon dress with touches of navy. The bride wore a two-tone dress with navy skirt and flowered top. Her shoulder corsage of pale pink rose buds was tied with golden ribbon.

After the guests were seated, Gilbert Williams sang beautifully because, accompanied by little Miss Marilyn Williams. A toast to the bride and groom was given by Roy Langford, the groom responding appropriately.

Victor Williams spoke briefly of the joy the family felt in seeing their mother and father mark this happy milestone in their lives. Mrs. Roy Langford, Amelia St., Newmarket, then presented a purse of money on behalf of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Williams were born in Maidenhead, Berkshire, England. The latter born Caroline Buxton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Buxton. Mr. Williams is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams. They were married in the Methodist church, September 10, 1896. They left Liverpool on April 24, 1906, for Canada with their two children, Florence and Percy, sailing on the Lake Manitoba, arriving in Collingwood May 6. Mr. Williams started work in the shipyards the following morning. On January 7, 1910, they came to Owen Sound where Mr. Williams (a baker by trade), operated his own shop for several years before changing to life insurance work, which he carried on for eight years. For the next 20 years Mr. Williams was a member of the circulation staff of The Daily Sun-Times and made many warm friends throughout Owen Sound and the surrounding districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were members of the Salvation Army for many years. The former being an ardent bandsman. Of late years they have attended the Alliance Tabernacle. They were blessed with a family of five. The eldest son, Reginald, passed away in infancy; Florence (Mrs. Roy Langford), Newmarket; Percy and Gilbert, Owen Sound, and Victor, Toronto. There are three granddaughters and nine grandsons.

So sudden on earth the sorrow fell. Memories are treasures no one can steal. Death leaves a heart-ache nothing can heal. Forever loved and remembered, mother and dad.

Selby—In loving memory of my dear husband, Wellington B. Selby, who passed away six years ago, September 20, 1940. The evening stars shine on the grave Of the one I loved but could not save, The call was sudden, the shock severe To lose the one I loved so dear. 'Tis sweet to know we'll meet again Where troubles are no more And that the one I loved so well Has just gone on before. Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his wife, Edith.

Selby—In loving memory of our dear father, Wellington B. Selby, who passed away six years ago, September 20, 1940. Years of striving, little of play, Loving and giving the whole of the way; A cheerful smile, a heart of gold, The dearest father a world could hold. You oftentimes said we'd miss you; Those words have proved too true; We lost our best, our dearest friend, Dear father, when we lost you. Lovingly remembered by his children, Leonard, Dora and Albert.

Wylder—In loving memory of Oliver J. Wylder who passed into rest October 1, 1944. Somewhere back of the sunset Where loveliness never dies He dwells in a land of glory Mid the blue and gold of the skies. Daughter Annie, and family.

First Returns Declared Satisfactory in S.A. Drive

Results so far in the Red Shield home front appeal of the Salvation Army "have proven very satisfactory," Capt. Arthur Robinson, Salvation Army in Newmarket, said this week.

The Salvation Army is seeking $2,000 in Newmarket and the immediate district. H. J. Luck is acting as chairman and Kenneth Flett as treasurer.

"The public seems to realize the amount of extra work the Salvation Army is called upon to handle," said Capt. Robinson. "The war has left broken homes, deserted wives and children. The public is rallying to the support of the Army with financial aid. Without the support of everyone, the work of the Salvation Army would be hampered and perhaps some needy folk would continue in want."

Contributions for the Salvation Army appeal can be made direct to Capt. Robinson, or by mailing them to Newmarket post office box 383 if missed by the canvassers.

Twenty-two canvassers, under the general supervision of Mr. Luck, are canvassing Newmarket.
